

RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING PUBLIC USE AT THE BRICK RESERVOIR

The Brick Reservoir is first and foremost the water supply for currently over 100,000 residents in the northern Ocean County area. We are happy that we are able to provide some limited passive recreation at the Reservoir site. The following rules and regulations have been crafted with the protection of the water supply as a central concern. All visitors to the Brick Reservoir must abide by the following for their own personal safety, as well as the environmental safety and security of the Reservoir ecosystem.

1. NO littering.
2. NO entrance to restricted areas at the Reservoir as posted.
3. NO swimming.
